

Announcement of Participation in HOFEX 2009

InfrasyS International Limited announced its participation at the upcoming HOFEX 2009 (May 6 – 9, 2009). The Hostec Marketplace of the exhibition is dedicated to the full suite of integrated hospitality IT products and solutions & open interfaces with major industry software including hotel, club, restaurant chains, and will set the stage for InfrasyS to pre-launch the latest innovative online restaurant reservation service (Look4Table Service) with the 1st instant online restaurant booking mass portal – Tablemark.com in Hong Kong.

The main theme for this year is “The Next Generation Dining Concept”. InfrasyS will showcase its latest technology advancements in a complete hospitality solution, which meet the challenging demands and market environments for the hospitality industry. What’s more, InfrasyS will give the first preview of the new online restaurant table reservation service. Look4Table Service with a mass portal called Tablemark.com provides an ultimate solution that offers a complete one-stop-shop, instant and convenient online restaurant table reservation service for both consumers and operators.

The continuous innovation of new products, solutions and new concepts demonstrates InfrasyS’ commitment in product development and excellence for the industry, helping our customers in meeting challenges, making profits and capturing new business opportunities.
